

Etihad Airways Suspends Flights to Damascus

Etihad Airways has suspended flights between Abu Dhabi and Damascus with immediate effect and until further notice.

The decision, while not taken lightly, has been made due to the deteriorating security position in Syria.

The safety of passengers and crew is paramount to the airline.

Etihad Airways will notify affected passengers and offer a full refund for unused tickets.

Please note, a Commercial Waiver policy will follow in due course.

CALL EXCEL TRAVEL ON 16241 FOR MORE INFORMATION